Editorial

This year, the media attention has risen beyond anything we have seen in Football in Brisbane for a long, long time. With “YourBpl”, “Pauly TV”, “Blanchy” and “Logan Radio 101 FM”. It has all been fantastic. But, if I have one criticism it would be this. This is specifically directed to Phil Davis and anybody else who reports on Football.

CAN YOU PLEASE DROP THE MINOR PREMIERSHIP TAG. There is nothing MINOR about playing 26 Rounds of fixtures and finishing top of the league. The correct term is Premiership winners. We as football people MUST start recognising this fact! Most do, even Football Brisbane have done this. Winning the PREMIERSHIP should carry much more kudos than winning the Grand Final. Sure we are in Australia and, sure the Grand Final is fantastic. But in know way is it better then winning the League.

People will say that its easy for me to say this as we are top of the league. Well I have said this from day one— Peninsula Won the Premiership last season and rightly so, and as such they should be treated like champions.

I read another report earlier in the year which stated a club would gladly give up a Premiership for a shot at winning the Grand Final. What a load of rubbish! Winning the Premiership is the pinnacle, anything other than this is a consolation prize.

Here’s one for you to think about..... How about we scrap the current “Final” format and introduce an end of season knockout style Finals series which involves all teams. This would keep everybody interested, would it not?

Presidents Message

Welcome to Underwood Park for tonight's clash with local rivals, Mt Gravatt. I'm expecting a strong showing from our opposition tonight as is usual when the two sides clash. Mt Gravatt has beaten Capalaba & Peninsula Power among others so they are capable on the day of upsetting any team. I would like to welcome all players, coaches, officials and supporters of Mt Gravatt to tonight's games. Good luck to both sides.

With Firsts, Reserves, Premier Youth and Youth Div 1 all sitting in top spot and U21's in second place in their respective ladders we are the club everyone likes to have a win against. That is to be expected and that is how the games turn out to be tough each and every week – other teams lift against us. Get yourself to as many games as you can, you'll be missing out on some great football if you don't.

Last week saw the completion of the first round of matches with the completion of the catch-up game against Olympic. Both Firsts and Reserves teams had a battle on their hands and to their credit all the boys dug deep, the Ressies in a real dogfight for a scoreless draw and the Firsts up 1-0 at halftime to go ahead and control the second half to come away with a 3-1 win. Tabulo with 2 goals and it was great to see young James Donachie come away with his first League goal in the topflight. A great effort by the squads in both games. I'm glad I don't have to pick a man-of-the-match; too many players deserve it to single out just one.

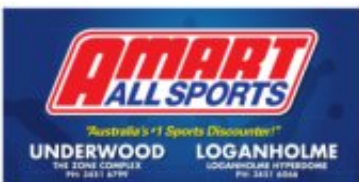

James Donachie

Don't forget our Cup Games as well, the Premier Youth and U21's played 2nd Round Youth Cup and Veto Cup games on Tuesday night and the Firsts have the 4th Round Canale Cup game coming up on the 30th at home against Easts. These games can turn out to be crackers since it's a sudden death format, no second chances, and any team can come through in a one off game.

On behalf of the Board of Directors I'd like to take this opportunity to thank all of our volunteers throughout the club. Whatever it is that you do, all of you play a significant part in the success of the club. Thank you very much. I'd like to add a big thank you to our generous sponsors. Please support them whenever you can. Don't forget, we are still looking for sponsors, in particular a major sponsor, so if you think you may know someone who may be interested, please let us know.

Once again, good luck to all teams out there today and all players, officials and supporters of both Mt Gravatt & Rochedale Rovers are invited to come in to the club house after the game, mingle with the players and enjoy all of the hospitality Rochedale Rovers has to offer.

Mick MacArthur

Laugh a little

A blonde gets a job as a physical education teacher of 16 year olds. She notices a boy in the field standing alone, while all the other kids are running around having fun.

She takes pity on him and decides to speak to him. 'You ok?' she asks. 'Yes.' he says.

'You can go and play with the other kids you know', she says.

'It's best I stay here.' he says.

'Why?' says the blonde.

The boy says: "Because I'm the fu%#ng goalkeeper!"

Reserve Team Report

Last week's fixture against Olympic saw the boy's gain another point in the title race. I say a point gained and not 2 lost because I felt we were up against a very well organized and determined side. To their credit they came here and had a go which can't be said of a lot of teams that play us.

The pleasing thing for me in this match was the desire to contest every ball and to work hard all over the pitch.

I felt we played some very good 1 and 2 touch football at times, but obviously against a well organised team chances were at a premium. However in saying that, a little more composure in the box may have seen us get a goal. All in all I was delighted with my teams endeavours and willingness to work hard for each other and on another day may have got the win.

At this stage of the season and the position we find ourselves in I am pretty pleased with our squad. We welcome back some long term injured players, and being free from suspensions at the moment numbers are looking healthy and competition for places is certainly there.

So well done lads but as we all know there is a lot of points to play for yet!

All the best,

Nigel McClure

Youth Report

PREMIER YOUTH

This weekend we welcome Redlands to Underwood Park. It's the 1st game of the 2nd round. We have had a positive first half of the season with only one defeat to Redlands in the 1st game of the season. Since then, we have been unbeaten and looking to improve each week. I have been very happy so far and expect our boys to step up the intensity and commitment to a more senior level. There are a number of players that want to go on to the next level and we will be doing all we can to help them achieve their goals. This game is exactly what we need to kick start our goals. We need to step up and try to be more efficient than Redlands and dominate our time in possession. A midweek Youth Cup win against Park Ridge (10-1) will not help us. I need the boys to be focussed and not complacent as we were in the 1st Round against Redlands.

Brian Hastings

YOUTH DIV 1

John Paul College this week. I believe that this is our toughest match. I have great respect for the Korean attitude and commitment. I have seen it at our training and believe that their technique is raising the bar in our football at Rochedale. There will be a bit of rivalry, so we need our players to be prepared for a tough game. It should be a very tactical game, but I am sure Darren will have the boys prepared both mentally and physically. We have explained that the best way to beat rivalry is to see the ball in the back of your opponents net - not in the number of yellow cards. So keep your discipline and play well lads.

Good luck to all teams.

Premier Review

Beenleigh v Souths: Home ground advantage will suit Beenleigh in this one, however it may not be as easy as one thinks. Souths like to play football, but may not be may to on Beenleighs' pitch. I have a funny feeling we are in for a high scoring draw.

Score Draw

Peninsula Power v Pine Hills: Power made a late run last year to win the league. Can they do it again? Maybe a long shot, but they will get the points here. Home Win

Redlands Utd v Eastern Suburbs: Redlands are having a very difficult season which has been hampered with injuries. Expect a big improvement as these players return. Easts will be to strong today. Away Win

Mount Gravatt v Brisbane City: Mt Gravatt's home form may have a bearing in this one. City have been all over the place so far. Many pundits believe they are better than their form shows. Score Draw

Pine Rivers v Rochedale Rovers; Rochedale have a good record at Rivers, but will need to be at their best. Rivers gave then a stern test in Round 1. Away Win.

Taringa Rovers v Brisbane Wolves. Taringa are getting better and better and scoring plenty of goals. They will need that this week. Away Win

Olympic v Capalaba: The game of the round. Olympic are looking like they are ready to give the league a real shakeup. Capalaba's form has dropped. Could be plenty of goals here. Home Win.

Dear Sir

It has been many years since I have written to your club. You see, many years ago I was a regular writer of letters as I pursued my dream. I had a crush on a player (Brad Ditton) a long, long time ago. Well nothing eventuated and I lost hope. I left Australia and settled in Miami Beach where life was much easier and I was accepted. Recently I have returned to Australia where I am working at a "Help Line".

But what has this got to do with Soccer you ask? Well even though I have been miles away, I always keep up with my beloved Rochedale Rovers. I never thought the day would come when I had a chance to re-open my feelings, but alas it has happened. A couple of weeks ago my Phone line was running hot with people trying to get in touch with me. Nerves must have got the better of these people and they hung up. Upon investigation it seems many of the phone calls came from players within your club.

Now I know how sensitive this issue may be to some so I won't divulge any names. I will however be contacting these players in private. They need to know that they need not be ashamed. I will be in touch.

Yours Forever

Roger

Ed Reply:

Dear Roger,

Welcome back. Long time no see or hear. I am sure my players will be keen to hear from you, but please be gentle. This is a very difficult situation some of them find themselves in. I myself am very open minded and regardless of the outcome will treat them all the same.

Thank you for your letter.

The Ed.

Well the big show is under way again and as usual there are plenty of talking points.

Lets start with the balls.

Why does the start of every World Cup now seem to have everyone talking about the difference in performance of the NEW ball in comparison to the OLD version. Why do we need a new ball anyway? I know the company with the rights to provide the ball want to produce a product that is going to sell millions and make them Billions but I have a feeling that instead of introducing a product that has been unseen and untried by most and performs in a vastly different way to the balls that have been in use since the last World Cup if they changed the colour of the panels or made some other cosmetic alterations that did not affect the flight of the ball then they still sell as many. I also have a feeling that people don't want to see passes being continually over or under hit and dead ball experts unable to produce their usual deadly accuracy.

Some people may also get a laugh from goalkeeping howlers but don't forget this is the biggest stage and devotees of all others ball codes and sports are watching and we want them to witness superb skills deciding games not horrendous blunders that could be caused by a product that players have not had time to get to know.

If a new ball must be produced then why can the players not be exposed to it earlier? I believe the German league has been using the new ball for at least a season and it may be more than coincidence that they have possibly been the most impressive performers so far (that may also have something to do with their opposition).

I am aware that different leagues have different equipment sponsors but could the balls

Rochdale Rovers Senior players and all
Senior coaching staff are proud to wear

have been used in qualifying groups and other internationals?

The crowd numbers have been fantastic and it really is amazing to think that on the same day in a neutral country you can stage three matches a day every day and attract crowds of 70,000 plus to each one.

For me personally, the big crowds have been there, but not the real football atmosphere. Blowing horns and banging drums are one thing but they are no substitute for real crowd noise like cheering and singing.

The horns have taken the actual support element out of the games. I am sure the players can only here the horns and can't feel their supporters efforts to lift them and back them.

Anyway all that aside I'm sure there are plenty of great moments to come in the weeks ahead.

KEEPER TIPS   KEEPER TIPS   KEEPER TIPS

The 2010 World Cup is now underway and I, like most of you, have been watching as many games live as I can. Working with goalkeepers constantly, when I see players at an elite level I expect the basic errors to have disappeared from their game. As you no doubt have seen, there have been numerous blunders from first of all the England keeper Robert Green to Mark Schwarzer who I think should have done better with the first and not even have conceded that second goal from the cross. You should have worked out already where I am heading with this... The best keepers in the world make mistakes, but simple errors you would not expect them to make. Confidence is a massive issue with goalkeepers of all ages and vary degree of ability. Mistakes will always be made, but you need to have a think about what you can do next time to try and avoid that situation again. Learn to move on and focus on that great save you made rather than any mistakes that lead to a goal. This with practice will help with your confidence levels. Remember to "keep working hard" and I will see you next time.

Regards, Mark Askew

KC's KORNER

By the time you read this I am hopefully just finishing a game of Golf in Thailand. I arrived here Yesterday with the "Old Boys" for a Golf & World Cup Trip. We will head back to our Hotel before heading out again for a Night of World Cup Football.

I hope its not to cold back in Oz because its bloody hot here. One or Two Beers should fix that and a coffee in between of course. (Any more then 2 or 3 Beers and I need to lay down.)

We have not encountered any trouble as yet as we are about 2 hours from Bangkok. To be on the safe side we have all brought both Red & Yellow shirts. We will simply blend in with whichever side is in power. The only problem we have is that one of the boys is a huge Everton supporter and he refuses to wear red.

Well boys, we are on the run home now. We have everything to fight for. I am picking up some Coaching Tips from the World Cup which I will bring back. Hopefully Thailand doesn't change me to much like it has with many of you players. It seems over the past few years Thailand has become a home away from home for many of the Rochedale players. It is Paradise I must admit.

It's funny and you players won't appreciate it until you get older, but the 8 of us 'Old Players" just sit around and talk about the "Old Days". We tell the same stories over and over again and they are still funny. You have it all ahead of you, that's why you should cherish the time you spend as team mates. In 10 or 20 years time you will catch up and talk about things that happened in the dressing rooms, or on the pitch or at a Players Day out and you will laugh your heads off. My advice to you all is simple. Life is to short. Enjoy every moment because when it's over, its over.

Coops in the "Old Days"

Good Luck to all teams tonight and next week. I will see you all on the 30th for the Cup game.
